

Reed W. Goodfellow

LAYTON—Reed Walker Goodfellow, 52, born February 13, 1939 to Ray T. and Winnona Goodfellow passed away October 30, 1991.

Raised in Bountiful, Reed joined the Air Force in 1956. From Bountiful he was shipped to England where he met and married Margaret Lillian Shandley. They had two sons, Darrell Ray and Scott Lee Goodfellow.

Reed was a veteran of the Vietnam War and was awarded the Air Medal for his part in the rescue of five downed aircrew. He continued his service after Vietnam and lived all over the world. He returned to his home in Davis County in 1979 where he retired from the military. He continued working for civil service as an aircraft mechanic for 15 years.

In March of 1987 he married Ellen Lockwood of Davis County.

Reed was preceded in death by his wife Margaret and his father Ray Tolman Goodfellow.

He is survived by his wife, Ellen; his sons, Scott, Darrell and William J. Lockwood, all of Layton; his mother, Mrs. Wayne (Winnona) Wheeler, Bountiful; sisters, Betty McCollum, Roy; Lois Barber, Alpine, Wyoming; Doris Wilson, Fort Collins, Colo.; brothers, Richard Goodfellow, Burley, Idaho; Darrell Goodfellow, Evanston, Wyoming.

Graveside services will be held Monday, November 4, 11 a.m. at Lakeview Memorial Estates, 1640 E. Lakeview Dr., Bountiful with military honors accorded by the Hill Air Force Base Honor Guard. Friends may call Sunday, Nov. 3, from 6-8 p.m. at Lindquist's Kaysville Mortuary, 400 N. Main St.
